FASHION WEEK

Metropolitan Fashion Awards

2nd Annual Metropolitan Fashion Awards SUBMISSION ENTRIES OPEN ON MONDAY, January 16, 2017. YOU CAN NOW ENTER/SUBMIT DIRECTLY at Metropolitanfashionweek.net

The Chairs of the Awards Balloting Committee have sought to improve the voting process into a clearer and simpler one for the voting membership. Submission guidelines, submitting parties, and categories have been refined to create clarity and consistency for each category, which will now include expanded shorter formatted projects beyond commercials alone. We hope these improvements assist you in your participation as a voting member.

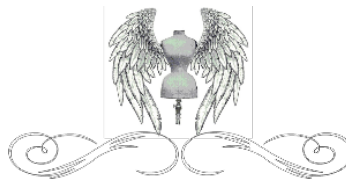

With the hundreds of film releases, television shows, and countless fashion events each year, we cannot stress enough the importance of self-participation by submitting your projects on the Submission Form. The committee spends a tremendous amount of time and effort earnestly gathering eligible projects for the nomination ballot, as a courtesy only, not a requirement. Therefore, your participation is key in presenting a thorough body of annual work worthy of consideration for a nomination.

Submitting Parties Who May Submit:

Self-submissions are preferred. In addition to self-submissions, we will also accept submissions from: studio awards dept., television networks, producers, PR firms, and agents. These are the only parties eligible to submit an entry or entries.

Streamline the Process: This year, the self-submitting person or authorized parties can enter and post the individuals Submission Entry form directly on metropolitanfashionweek.net, making it a more legible document for the committee to review.
